

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Who can apply for the CE Master's Programme?

SAF Officers who graduated from Phase 1 of the CSC/CSC[E] will be able to apply for the SAF CE Master's sponsorship programme.

What is the maximum candidature to complete the Masters programme?

Enrolled SAF Officers are required to complete their Master's degree programme within 3 years from the date of admission. Officers must also comply with the maximum candidature period stipulated by their respective NUS Master's degree programmes.

If I attended CSC at a foreign institution, can I apply for CE Master's programme and its sponsorship?

The SAF CE Master's sponsorship is for CSC/CSC(E) students who have gained admission to the CE Master's Programme. Officers who attended CSC at a foreign institution can apply to do a regular full or part-time Master's degree programme. They may also explore alternative sponsorship schemes, such as the Part-time Master's Sponsorship Scheme, reimbursement scheme/LEAP, subject to the prevailing eligibility criteria.

Will I be granted time-off for my examinations? How many days of unrecorded leave am I entitled to?

Yes, there is unrecorded leave of 3 days per subject with a cap of 12 days per year for examinations. This is an existing provision that is applicable to all MINDEF/SAF sponsored programmes.

How and when will I know if I am sponsored?

Applicants will be informed by their PMCs regarding the award of sponsorship.
